Selected Topics of Christian Faith

Selected Topics of Christian Faith, by Stephen J. Capaldo, is a collection of short essays on different Biblical topics which perhaps have not received much practical attention or in some way have elicited controversy among people of faith. The author is of the view that Bible students of good will must be able to take on issues in all areas of the Word of God in an objective and respectful way. Mr. Capaldos background is in languages and interpretation. He spent many years as an interpreter in Canada and at the United Nations and continues to work part-time at the UN. He is now able to combine his employment experience in communication with his desire to write about the Word of He is married to Betsy Capaldo. They currently reside in North Providence, RI.
