

Zhouzhuang (Chinese Edition)

Zhouzhuang is a south China town with the reputation of Chinas First Watertown and one of the national first Grade 5 scenic spots. Zhouzhuang was founded in 1086 (the first year of Yuanyou Period in Northern Song Dynasty) and derived its name from Mr. Zhou Digong who donated to build the Quanfu Temple. Zhouzhuang has a long history and it is a typical town in south China with a unique human landscape, thus the treasure of Chinese water town culture and the Han culture of Zhejiang. In Zhouzhuang, the essays are based on the scenery and customs, showing the real Zhouzhuang in the mind of Ruan Yisan and extracting his thoughts on culture, life and self.
